

Test Project Guidelines

Mobile Applications Development

Module A Functionality

Day 1 AM

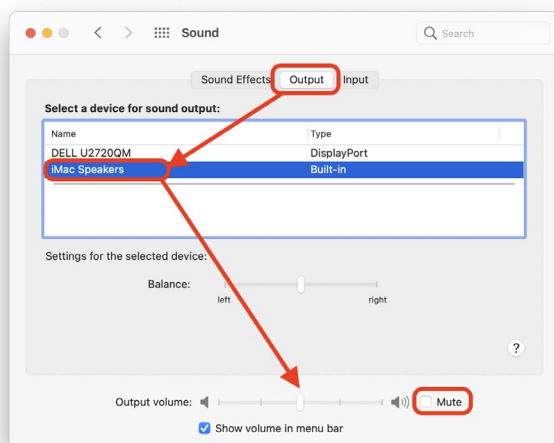

Submitted by:
Independent Test Project Design Team

Instructions for using the microphone in the emulator

1. Please make sure that the speaker and microphone of iMac are turned on.

No	Example	Instruction
1		Open "System Preferences" in Launchpad.
2		Click the "Sound" icon in the System Preferences.

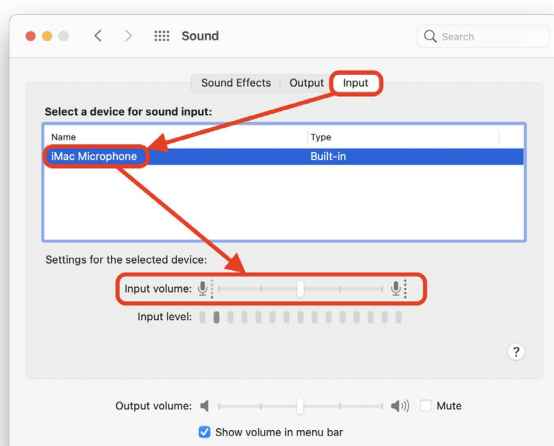

3

In the "Output" page make sure the speaker output device is "iMac Speakers" and is not muted.

*If you use headphones, please choose according to the actual situation

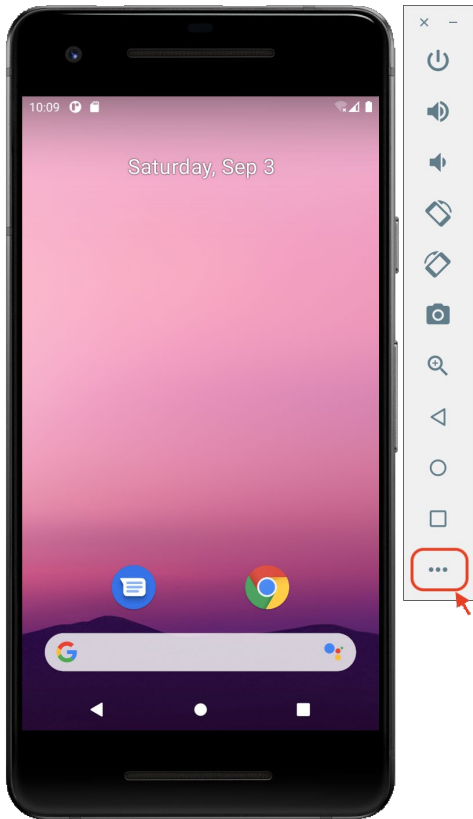

4

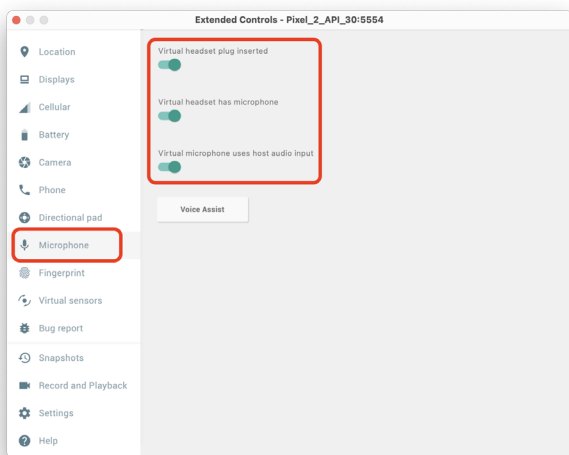

In the "Input" page make sure the sound input device is "iMac Microphone" and set a proper input volume for the selected device.

*If you use headphones, please choose according to the actual situation

2. Android: Make sure the Android emulator's microphone is set up correctly.
(Start android emulator after system preferences have been set.)

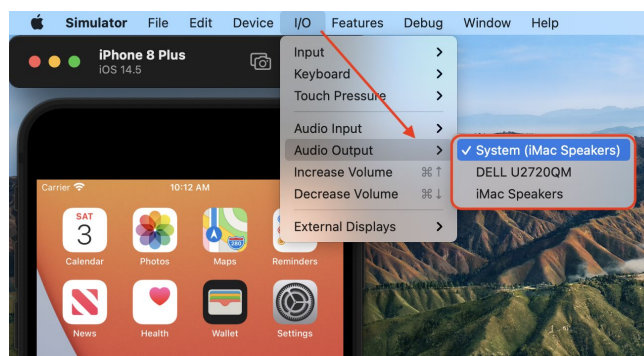

No	Example	Instruction
1		Click the "... " button in Android emulator.

2		In the "Microphone" page make sure the all switches are activated.
---	---	--

3. iOS: Make sure the iOS emulator's microphone is set up correctly.

No	Example	Instruction
1		Open the iOS emulator.
2		In the top menu bar, click the "I/O" tab, then click the "Audio Input" tab. Please confirm that the input source is "iMac Microphone".

3

In the top menu bar, click the "I/O" tab, and then click the "Audio Output" tab. Please confirm that the output device is "iMac Speakers".